

This is a translation of a portion of the Culture Section of the newspaper published on the city of Mar del Plata on Sunday May 15th. 1988.

Rosa Antonelli. on "The Interprets"

Tonight at 19.00 at the Auditorium Theater will begin another edition of the annual concert cycle "The Interprets" sponsored by LRI 209 Mar del Plata Radio, performing on this event, the prestigious pianist Rosa Antonelli, graduated from the National Music Conservatory "Carlos Lopez Buchardo" with the degrees of National Professor of Music and Superior Professor of Piano. She has worked since 1979 under the guidance of Roberto Caamaño with whom she continues her studies. She has participated on several seminars, both in Argentina and abroad, of piano, composition, clavichord and chamber music. She was later rewarded with the "Rosa Sabater" scholarship.

She has performed on halls both in Buenos Aires and cities abroad such as Madrid, Brussels, Antwerp, Bonn, Rome, Zurich, Bern, Moscow, Belgrade, etc.

On tonight's recital she will execute the following program: 1st. Part - "Sonata in D Major Longo 256" by D. Scarlatti, "Sonata op. 31 # 2" (largo-allegro; adagio-alegretto) by L. van Beethoven. 2nd. Part - "Animado de la Suite de mi Tierra" by F. Ugarte, "Nobel and Sentimental Waltzes" by M. Ravel and "Allegro de Concierto" by E. Granados.